

AE 3007 Engine Familiarisation

Course syllabus

Training level ATA 104 Level I

Target population Recommended for personnel requiring a general overview of the engine.

General description This course provides description and operation information, systems knowledge and hardware knowledge. The knowledge provided in this course is intended to supplement information available to the line mechanic from the applicable technical manuals.

Notes Training consists of twelve hours of lectures.

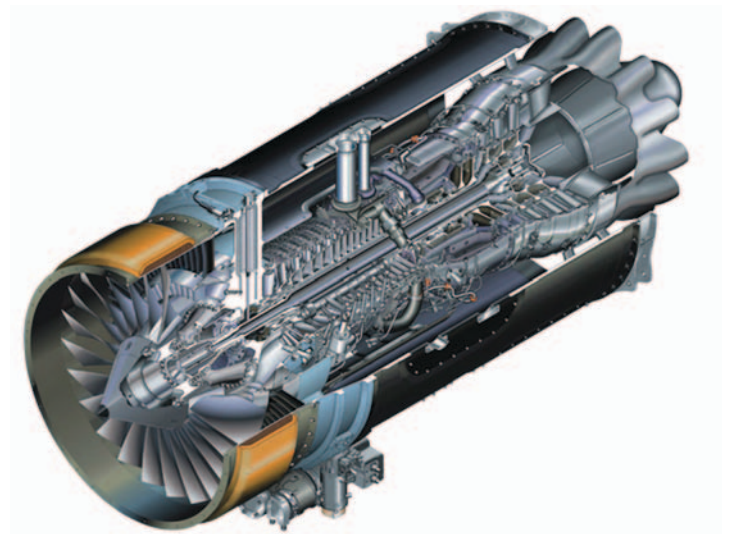

Course schedule

Location Indianapolis training centre

Dates 30 – 31 May, 20 – 21 June

Students per course 6-15

Training methods Tutor led instruction in training room

Allocation of hours

Monday to Friday 08:00 to 16:00

For further information

trainingcorpreg@rolls-royce.com